The Kingdom of Heaven*

This week: 5:1-13

A great outcry due to exploitation
Nehemiah 5:1-5

Nehemiah confronts his fellow Jews
Nehemiah 5:6-11

Leviticus 25:35-43

The people promise to respond
Nehemiah 5:12-13

Understanding Nehemiah in light of the Gospel Storyline

A parable of Jesus comparable to
Nehemiah's situation
Matthew 18:21-35

The kingdom of heaven is like *this*

- A people facing insurmountable debt having their debts cancelled
- A people neither summoning a defense nor opening their mouths when in the wrong
- A person setting another person free from their indebtedness
- Anger toward the unmerciful for what it says about the merciful king

Gospel Response:

*Oh, to grace how great a debtor
Daily I'm constrained to be*

Scripture Passages

(taken from the New International Version)

Nehemiah 5:1-13

1 Now the men and their wives raised a great outcry against their fellow Jews. 2 Some were saying, "We and our sons and daughters are numerous; in order for us to eat and stay alive, we must get grain." 3 Others were saying, "We are mortgaging our fields, our vineyards and our homes to get grain during the famine." 4 Still others were saying, "We have had to borrow money to pay the king's tax on our fields and vineyards. 5 Although we are of the same flesh and blood as our fellow Jews and though our children are as good as theirs, yet we have to subject our sons and daughters to slavery. Some of our daughters have already been enslaved, but we are powerless, because our fields and our vineyards belong to others." 6 When I heard their outcry and these charges, I was very angry. 7 I pondered them in my mind and then accused the nobles and officials. I told them, "You are charging your own people interest!" So I called together a large meeting to deal with them 8 and said: "As far as possible, we have bought back our fellow Jews who were sold to the Gentiles. Now you are selling your own people, only for them to be sold back to us!" They kept quiet, because they could find nothing to say. 9 So I continued, "What you are doing is not right. Shouldn't you walk in the fear of our God to avoid the reproach of our Gentile enemies? 10 I and my brothers and my men are also lending the people money and grain. But let us stop charging interest! 11 Give back to them immediately their fields, vineyards, olive groves and houses, and also the interest you are charging them — one percent of the money, grain, new wine and olive oil." 12 "We will give it back," they said. "And we will not demand anything more from them. We will do as you say." Then I summoned the priests and made the nobles and officials take an oath to do what they had promised. 13 I also shook out the folds of my robe and said, "In this way may God shake out of their house and possessions anyone who does not keep this promise. So may such a person be shaken out and emptied!" At this the whole assembly said, "Amen," and praised the LORD. And the people did as they had promised.
