Moment One

The Plate

The Passover

¹ The Lord said to Moses and Aaron in the land of Egypt, ² "This month shall be for you the beginning of months. It shall be the first month of the year for you. ³ Tell all the congregation of Israel that on the tenth day of this month every man shall take a lamb according to their fathers' houses, a lamb for a household. ⁴ And if the household is too small for a lamb, then he and his nearest neighbor shall take according to the number of persons; according to what each can eat you shall make your count for the lamb. ⁵ Your lamb shall be without blemish, a male a year old. You may take it from the sheep or from the goats, ⁶ and you shall keep it until the fourteenth day of this month, Exodus 12:1-6

Jesus has set a place for you at the table by becoming our Passover Lamb. His blood shed so death would pass over us. The Plate no longer filled with symbols of the Exodus story, but now filled with remembrance of our Lamb, Jesus, who takes away the sins of the world.

Reflect, Pray, and Sing together

*Come on home, home to me
And I will hold you in my arms
And joyful be*

*There will always, always be
A place for you at my table
Return to me*

Moment Two

The Cup

Jesus Prays in Gethsemane

³⁶ Then Jesus went with them to a place called Gethsemane, and he said to his disciples, "Sit here, while I go over there and pray." ³⁷ And taking with him Peter and the two sons of Zebedee, he began to be sorrowful and troubled. ³⁸ Then he said to them, "My soul is very sorrowful, even to death; remain here, and watch with me." ³⁹ And going a little farther he fell on his face and prayed, saying, "My Father, if it be possible, let this cup pass from me; nevertheless, not as I will, but as you will." ⁴⁰ And he came to the disciples and found them sleeping. And he said to Peter, "So, could you not watch with me one hour? ⁴¹ Watch and pray that you may not enter into temptation. The spirit indeed is willing, but the flesh is weak." ⁴² Again, for the second time, he went away and prayed, "My Father, if this cannot pass unless I drink it, your will be done." ⁴³ And again he came and found them sleeping, for their eyes were heavy. ⁴⁴ So, leaving them again, he went away and prayed for the third time, saying the same words again. ⁴⁵ Then he came to the disciples and said to them, "Sleep and take your rest later on. See, the hour is at hand, and the Son of Man is betrayed into the hands of sinners. ⁴⁶ Rise, let us be going; see, my betrayer is at hand."

Matthew 26:36-46

Jesus has set a place for you at the table by taking the Cup of wrath on Himself so that ALL could be free from God's wrath.

Reflect, Pray, and Sing together

*Come on home, home to me
And I will hold you in my arms
And joyful be*

*There will always, always be
A place for you at my table
Return to me*

Moment Three

The Bowl

Jesus Sentenced to Death.

¹⁹while he was sitting on the judgment seat, his wife sent word to him, "Have nothing to do with that righteous man, for I have suffered much because of him today in a dream." ²⁰ Now the chief priests and the elders persuaded the crowd to ask for Barabbas and destroy Jesus. ²¹ The governor again said to them, "Which of the two do you want me to release for you?" And they said, "Barabbas." ²² Pilate said to them, "Then what shall I do with Jesus who is called Christ?" They all said, "Let him be crucified!" ²³ And he said, "Why? What evil has he done?" But they shouted all the more, "Let him be crucified!"

²⁴So when Pilate saw that he was gaining nothing, but rather that a riot was beginning, he took water and washed his hands before the crowd, saying, "I am innocent of this man's blood; see to it yourselves."

Jesus has set a place for you at the table by taking your place on death row. Exchanging his innocent life for our guilty one. The Bowl is a reminder that Pilate washed his hands of this absurd, seemingly unjust act.

Reflect, Pray, and Sing together

*Come on home, home to me
And I will hold you in my arms
And joyful be*

*There will always, always be
A place for you at my table
Return to me*

Moment Four

The Spoon

The Good Shepherd

¹⁴ I am the good shepherd. I know my own and my own know me, ¹⁵ just as the Father knows me and I know the Father; and I lay down my life for the sheep. ¹⁶ And I have other sheep that are not of this fold. I must bring them also, and they will listen to my voice. So there will be one flock, one shepherd. ¹⁷ For this reason the Father loves me, because I lay down my life that I may take it up again. ¹⁸ No one takes it from me, but I lay it down of my own accord. I have authority to lay it down, and I have authority to take it up again. This charge I have received from my Father.”

John 10:14-19

Jesus has set a place for you at the table by willingly serving us through his volunteering for death on our behalf. The Spoon is used for serving, and reminds us of Jesus, the greatest servant.

Reflect, Pray, and Sing together

*Come on home, home to me
And I will hold you in my arms
And joyful be*

*There will always, always be
A place for you at my table
Return to me*

Moment Five

*The Fork
& Knife*

The Death of Jesus

²⁸ After this, Jesus, knowing that all was now finished, said (to fulfill the Scripture), “I thirst.” ²⁹ A jar full of sour wine stood there, so they put a sponge full of the sour wine on a hyssop branch and held it to his mouth. ³⁰ When Jesus had received the sour wine, he said, “It is finished,” and he bowed his head and gave up his spirit. ³¹ Since it was the day of Preparation, and so that the bodies would not remain on the cross on the Sabbath (for that Sabbath was a high day), the Jews asked Pilate that their legs might be broken and that they might be taken away. ³² So the soldiers came and broke the legs of the first, and of the other who had been crucified with him. ³³ But when they came to Jesus and saw that he was already dead, they did not break his legs. ³⁴ But one of the soldiers pierced his side with a spear, and at once there came out blood and water. ³⁵ He who saw it has borne witness—his testimony is true, and he knows that he is telling the truth—that you also may believe. ³⁶ For these things took place that the Scripture might be fulfilled: “Not one of his bones will be broken.” ³⁷ And again another Scripture says, “They will look on him whom they have pierced.”

John 19:28-37

Jesus has set a place for you at the table through his suffering and death on a cross. The Fork & Knife remind us that he was pierced for our transgressions, and suffered for our treason against God.

Reflect, Pray, and Sing together

*Come on home, home to me
And I will hold you in my arms
And joyful be*

*There will always, always be
A place for you at my table
Return to me*

Moment Six

The Napkin

King Jesus is buried.

³⁸ After these things Joseph of Arimathea, who was a disciple of Jesus, but secretly for fear of the Jews, asked Pilate that he might take away the body of Jesus, and Pilate gave him permission. So he came and took away his body. ³⁹ Nicodemus also, who earlier had come to Jesus by night, came bringing a mixture of myrrh and aloes, about seventy-five pounds in weight. ⁴⁰ So they took the body of Jesus and bound it in linen cloths with the spices, as is the burial custom of the Jews. ⁴¹ Now in the place where he was crucified there was a garden, and in the garden a new tomb in which no one had yet been laid. ⁴² So because of the Jewish day of Preparation, since the tomb was close at hand, they laid Jesus there.

John 19:38-42

Jesus has set a place for you at the table defeating sin and death. The Napkin reminds us of our victorious King who slayed the giant and is given a royal burial by his friends in a garden tomb.

Reflect, Pray, and Sing together

*Come on home, home to me
And I will hold you in my arms
And joyful be*

*There will always, always be
A place for you at my table
Return to me*

Communion

*The Bread
& Wine*

The Lord's Supper

²³ For I received from the Lord what I also delivered to you, that the Lord Jesus on the night when he was betrayed took bread, ²⁴ and when he had given thanks, he broke it, and said, "This is my body, which is for you. Do this in remembrance of me." ²⁵ In the same way also he took the cup, after supper, saying, "This cup is the new covenant in my blood. Do this, as often as you drink it, in remembrance of me." ²⁶ For as often as you eat this bread and drink the cup, you proclaim the Lord's death until he comes.

1 Corinthians 11:23-26

Jesus has set a place for you at the table. Come and eat, his body broken for you. Come and drink, His blood shed for you.

Reflect, Pray, and Sing together

*Come on home, home to me
And I will hold you in my arms
And joyful be*

*There will always, always be
A place for you at my table
Return to me*

When I Survey the Wondrous Cross
by Isaac Watts

When I survey the wondrous cross, on which the Prince of glory died
My richest gain I count but loss, and pour contempt on all my pride

Forbid it, Lord, that I should boast, save in the death of Christ my God
All the vain things that charm me most,
I sacrifice them to His blood

Oh the wonderful cross! Oh the wonderful cross!
Bids me come and die to find that I may truly live
Oh the wonderful cross! Oh the wonderful cross!
All who gather here by grace draw near to bless His name

See from His head, His hands,
His feet, sorrow and love flow mingled down
Did e'er such love and sorrow meet, or thorns compose so rich a crown?

Were the whole realm of nature mine, that were an offering far too small Love so amazing, so divine; demands my soul, my life, my all

Man of Sorrows by Brooke Ligertwood

Man of sorrows, Lamb of God, by His own betrayed
The sin of man and wrath of God has been on Jesus laid

Silent as He stood accused, beaten, mocked, and scorned
Bowing to the Father's will, He took a crown of thorns

Oh, that rugged cross, my salvation
Where Your love poured out over me
Now my soul cries out, hallelujah
Praise and honor unto Thee

Sent of heaven, God's own Son to purchase and redeem
And reconcile the very ones who nailed Him to that tree

Death Was Arrested by Adam Kersh

Alone in my sorrow and dead in my sin
Lost without hope with no place to begin
Your love made a way to let mercy come in
When death was arrested and my life began

Ash was redeemed only beauty remains
My orphan heart was given a name
My mourning grew quiet my feet rose to dance
When death was arrested and my life began

Oh Your grace so free washes over me
You have made me new now life begins with You
It's Your endless love pouring down on us
You have made us new now life begins with You

Released from my chains I'm a prisoner no more
My shame was a ransom He faithfully bore
He cancelled my debt and He called me His friend
When death was arrested and my life began

Oh, that rugged cross, my salvation
Where Your love poured out over me
Now my soul cries out, hallelujah
Praise and honor unto Thee

Now my debt is paid, it is paid in full
By the precious blood that my Jesus spilled
Now the curse of sin has no hold on me
Whom the Son sets free, oh is free indeed

See the stone is rolled away, behold the empty tomb
Hallelujah, God be praised, He's risen from the grave

Oh, that rugged cross, my salvation
Where Your love poured out over me
Now my soul cries out, hallelujah
Praise and honor unto Thee

Oh Your grace so free washes over me
You have made me new now life begins with You
It's Your endless love pouring down on us
You have made us new now life begins with You

Our Savior displayed on a criminal's cross
Darkness rejoiced as though Heaven had lost
But then Jesus arose with our freedom in hand
That's when death was arrested and my life began

Oh Your grace so free washes over me
You have made me new now life begins with You
It's Your endless love pouring down on us
You have made us new now life begins with You

Oh we're free, free forever we're free
Come join the song of all the redeemed
Yes we're free, free forever amen
When death was arrested and my life began

At The Table by Josh Garrels

I went the ways of wayward winds
In a world of trouble and sin
Walked a long and crooked mile
Behind a million rank and file Forgot where I came from Somewhere back when I was young
I was a good man's child

'Cause I lost some nameless things
My innocence flew away from me
She had to hide her face from my desire
To embrace forbidden fire
But at night I dream
She's singing over me
Oh, oh, my child

Come on home, home to me
And I will hold you in my arms
And joyful be

There will always, always be
A place for you at my table
Return to me

Wondering where I might begin
Hear a voice upon the wind
She's singing faint but singing true
Son, there ain't nothing you can do
But listen close and follow me
I'll take you where you're meant to be Just don't lose faith

So I put my hand upon the plow
Wipe the sweat up from my brow
Plant the good seed along the way
As I look forward to the day
When at last I see
My Father run to me
Singing oh, my child

Come on home, home to me
And I will hold you in my arms
And joyful be

There will always, always be
A place for you at my table
Return to me
My child
